Covid Safety Practices: We invite guests to wear a mask. We follow the 2 meter distance safety practice and ask for your support in maintaining this safety guideline. We ask guests to use hand sanitizer before and after all tours. At present we are not shaking hands and will happily share how we say thank you the Coast Salish hand gesture. We will not be sharing our traditional drink during this period of managing the covid curve.

If you have any allergies or medical conditions you think we should know, please give us a call or send us an email. If you are sick or have a fever, we ask you to stay home and we will reschedule you within our scheduled operational season.
